JERUSALEM JEWS PRAY FOR AMERICA'S SUCCESS. By the Rev. Dr. A. S. Isaacs, Editor of the Jewish Messenger.

The new departure of the United States, its abandonment of traditional doctrne which, following the lines of Washington's farewell address, adhere to pace and no foreign entanglements, has aroused universal comment.

-fibe opinions of the European press are varied. Germany and France seem to be like Balaam of old-they wish to curse but they can only bless. is nore equivocal—she is carefully watching the game. Italy is enthusiastic. Put England, with hardly a dissenting voice, is unqualified in her plaudits. Ier editors and statesmen vie with each other in their desire for joint action

What has brought about this tremendous change of opinion abroad? The consciousness that "God and the gunners" are fighting for American ideas, that the United States has a distinct mission, and will hereafter have to be recoined with when "Cuban conditions" prevail in any land. In one word, the world has discovered that America is a nation young but strong, resolute. fearless and aspiring.

A few weeks ago the Wailing Place in Jerusalem was the scene of a remarkable gathering. The Jews had assembled in the presence of the American and English Consuls to pray for the success of America. The Orient looks to the Occident for hope and new life. The garden of the West has a message to the desert of the East. Civil and religious liberty, which was first pro-claimed from Sinal for the Hebrew commonwealth, is now America's flaming text to the world, with a Dewey, a Sampson and a Schley to enforce the Circus Trainer Devoured Before an Audience in Adelaide, Australia.

Vancouver, B. C., July 16,-News has reached here of a blood-curding tragedy at Hamstead circus, before an audience of 12000 at Adelaide, Australia, on June 17. John Isnacs, a tiger trainer, entered the cage of a vicious animal and instead of cage of a victors alread and instead of the usual club and hot frons, took with him a bamboo rod. Shortly after he had entered, the tiger became stubborn and issues hit the crouching beast with his bamboo rod. The tiger sprang upon its
